TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE HEART SUN
August 19 – 21, 2017

$599/p based on Double-Occupancy
$716 Single-Occupancy

Saturday, August 19

8:00 AM----Depart from UW-Sheboygan County
9:15 AM----Pick up at UW-Washington County
10:00 AM----Pick up at UW-Waukesha
11:30 AM---Arrive to Yerkes Observatory
12:00 PM----Yerkes Tour
2:00 PM-----Depart for Moline, IL
5:30 PM--------Check into Motel 6, Moline, IL
6:30 PM------------Dinner (on own)
8:00 PM----------Evening Observation
Sunday, August 20

8:00 AM---------Depart for St. Joseph, MO
Lunch stop on way

1:30 PM---------Check into Motel 6, Cameron, MO.

3:00 PM------Go to St. Joseph for planned event

Options are

St. Joseph Museum @ Wyeth-Tootle Mansion • stjosephmuseum.org
Richard Anthony Proctor, an English astronomer who first suggested that meteor impacts caused craters on the moon, lived in St. Joseph with his second wife in the 1800s. Exhibit on Richard Proctor, Mary Proctor, Mary Alicia Owen, and Luella Owen.

Albrecht-Kemper Museum of Art • albrecht-kemper.org
Solar Flair: Celestial Bodies in Motion Exhibit – The planets start to align and the stars shine brightly for Solar Flair: Celestial Bodies in Motion.

Trails West!® Festival • Civic Center Park/ City Hall • TrailsWest.org
Nationally-known performing artists, fine art, craft, and food vendors gather for a fun-filled weekend of family-friendly entertainment.

Pony Express National Museum & Pony Shool • PonyExpress.org
Get your astronomy lesson with the School Marm at the Pony School, an 1860s one-room school house will be the site of astronomy lessons from the era. $5 adults, $1 for children-12. At the Pony Express Museum, meet living history character Mabel Loving, who will share her impressions of a total eclipse she experienced in 1918 in Garden City, Kansas. Plus, Native American lodges on the grounds and learn about how they used the sun, moon, and stars in their daily lives.

Missouri Western State University • missouriwestern.edu/ eclipse2017

- Potter Hall @ Missouri Western State University • 11 am & 3 pm program with four experts; Mike Reynolds, professor of astronomy at Florida State College at Jacksonville, Derrick Pitts, chief astronomer at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, Bryan Busby, chief meteorologist KMBC-TV, Kansas City, Michael E. Bakich, Senior Editor Astronomy Magazine.
• Walter Cronkite Memorial @ Missouri Western State University • open extended hours, with special space exhibits and a real NASA spacesuit photo-op.

• Bushman Planetarium @ Missouri Western State University • Special eclipse-themed shows all weekend.

6:00 PM---------Dinner in St. Joseph, MO. (on own)

8:00 PM--------Evening observation near St. Joseph

10:00 PM-----Return to hotel

Monday, August 21

9:00 AM---------Depart for Rosecrans Memorial Airport

Rosecrans Memorial Airport • 100B NW Rosecrans Road • 816-271-4886 • Rosecrans will have a large primitive camping and RV areas. Amateur and professional astronomers with high-powered, safety-filtered telescopes, and detailed running commentaries by Michael Bakich from Astronomy Magazine.

1:06 PM----------------THE BIG GIG (lunch on own at event grounds)

3:00 PM-----------------Depart for Wisconsin (Dinner stop in route to WI)

11:30 PM-----------------Return to UW Waukesha

TUESDAY, 8/22-----12:30 AM-------------------Return to UW Washington County

TUESDAY, 8/22-----1:30 AM---------------------Return to UW Sheboygan